

Orchid

Orchids are widely cultivated for both indoor and outdoor gardens. They come in different shapes, sizes, and colors, ranging from vibrant yellow, pink, purple to more subtle white and green.

Marigold

Marigold is known for its bright colors, including shades of yellow, orange, and red. They are commonly used in festivals, weddings, and religious ceremonies as decorations or offerings.

Lotus

Lotus flower is a unique flower that is often associated with purity and enlightenment. It typically grows on long stalks above the water with petals that are pink or white.

Sunflower

The sunflower is an iconic flower known for its large size and unique appearance. It has a flower head surrounded by bright yellow or orange petals called ray florets.

Tulip

Tulips are vibrant and elegant flowers that are native to Central Asia. They are commonly used in floral arrangements, gardens, and as cut flowers due to their graceful appearance.

Rose

The rose is a beloved flower often associated with love, romance, and beauty. They are commonly given as gifts on special occasions such as Valentine's Day or anniversaries.