

Lena's Painting

Lena loves painting colorful pictures of animals. She spends hours in her room with her brushes and paints. Her favorite animal to paint is a giraffe. She once made a giant mural on her bedroom wall. Lena wants to be an artist when she grows up.

Carlos' Puzzle

Carlos is really good at solving puzzles. He can finish a 500-piece puzzle in just one afternoon. His grandma always brings him new ones to try. Carlos says puzzles help him think better at school. He even made his own puzzle once!

Jenny's Violin

Jenny loves to play the violin. At first, it was hard to get the notes right. But now she can play her favorite song from a movie. Her teacher says she practices more than anyone else. Jenny dreams of playing on a big stage one day.

Noah's Run

Noah loves to run fast. He races with his friends at recess time and almost always wins. His dad takes him to the park every weekend to practice. Noah wants to join a track team soon. He says running makes him feel like he's flying.

Maya's Books

Maya enjoys reading mystery books. She likes to guess the ending before she gets there. Sometimes she even writes her own short mysteries. Her stories have secret codes and hidden clues. Maya wants to be a detective or a writer someday.

Eli's Lego Bricks

Eli builds amazing things with LEGO bricks. He once made a whole city with roads, cars, and tiny houses. His little sister likes to help, but sometimes she knocks things over. Eli doesn't mind—he just rebuilds it even better. One day, he hopes to be an engineer.