

Name: _____

Ms. Jen

Reading Comprehension Exercise

My Mother

My mother is very kind and caring. She cooks delicious food for our family every day. She helps me with my homework when I find it hard. My mother loves to tell me stories before bedtime. I feel happy and safe when I am with her.

Comprehension Questions:

1. Who is very kind and caring?

2. What does the mother cook for the family?

3. How does she help her child?

4. When does the mother tell stories?

5. How does the child feel?

Name: _____

Ms. Jen

Reading Comprehension Exercise

My Father

My father is strong and hardworking. He goes to work every day to help our family. He tells me funny stories that make me laugh. On Sundays, we play games together at the park. I love my father because he always cares for me.

Comprehension Questions:

1. What does the father do every day?

2. How does the father make the child laugh?

3. Where do they play games on Sundays?

4. Why does the child love his/her father?

5. How is father described in the passage?

Name: _____

Ms. Jen

Reading Comprehension Exercise

My Brother

My brother is playful and kind. He likes to ride his bike around the neighborhood. He helps me build blocks and solve puzzles at home. Sometimes he tells me funny jokes that make me laugh. I enjoy spending time with him every day.

Comprehension Questions:

1. What does the brother like to ride?

2. How does brother help the child at home?

3. What makes the child laugh?

4. How is brother described in the passage?

5. How does the child feel?

Name: _____

Ms. Jen

Reading Comprehension Exercise

My Sister

My sister is cheerful and helpful. She likes to read storybooks before bedtime. She plays fun games with me after school. Sometimes she teaches me new songs to sing. I love my sister because she is my bestfriend.

Comprehension Questions:

1. What does the sister like to read?

2. When do they play fun games together?

3. When does the sister teach the child?

4. Why does the child love his/her sister?

5. How is sister described in the passage?
